

BSJA Weekend 20th & 21st October

Are we sure it's October what a wonderful weekend sunshine all the way !!!!

Good job too, Saturday was the turn of the Seniors, lots of new faces to Elms Farm Equestrian, course builder Mr. Alan Pearson set some challenging tracks that jumped well, Kylie Bishop riding Amigo Von Largo owned by Mrs. Baker came out on top, with Danielle Willett on CC Hook in second place, for the Foxhunter/120cm Open. Only one clear in the Newcomers that was Danielle this time riding Simon Segal.

The 110cm Open saw some fast times but it was Lisa Chilvers riding her own Sandstone Mill who was one of two to leave all the jumps up in the jump off, this time beaten into second was Danielle Willett on CC Hook.

The Discovery was well supported and it was local rider Alison Rogerson with her own Thom II who took the winners spot, second was on a ticket Emma Edwards riding Tonto Flying Colours.

British Novice class was a win for the only clear in the first round Le Mango and Jo Sanderson.

Juniors, first up was the British Novice a win for the newly registered Rhydcledan Reflection and Mikki Bailey, Mikki has competed here at Elms Farm on a regular basis in our unaffiliated competitions and it's great to see her doing well, in with the Big Boys !!

Sunday and more sunshine after a morning of un-affiliated jumping, we started 12.30pm with the Discovery next and some super fast times, Silver Flip owned by A. Barber ridden by Beth Vernon, took first place, closely followed by Holly Wilson and Fairviews Overnight Sensation, 3rd was Real Cool Dude & Danielle Willett. On a ticket was Molly Webber and Brockwater Cock Robin, came through to 4th on her first outing into the world of BSJA, and gained a double clear. Next in were the Newcomers, only 4 into the jump off, Fairviews Media II owned by D. Cox ridden by H. Wilson, came out on top with local girl Lorna Willcocks and her grandmother's pony Hugo I Go II, fresh from her successful trip to Ireland eventing

The 1m Open and a close run thing between two of our successful young riders Stephanie Gunn coming out on top, with her mother Heather's Dylasan Derier, Danielle Willett and A. Frost's Newyork Sunrise in second, with less than a second between them it made for an exciting finish to the class.

The Foxhunter, saw the biggest field of the day forward, Danielle turning the tables on Stephanie this time taking first on J. Pownall's Funfair, second was A. Restorick's Eva's Will ridden by Rebecca Gunn, Stephanie coming in third with Blacks Jordi owned by D. Miller.

We had a request for a bigger a class so up went the jumps to 120cm and in came the girls both of the Gunn sisters and Danielle, great fun and a real display of how it should be done.

Over all a great weekend and hope to see more at our next BSJA competition on November 24th.
